Now here are some real Nurses!

Those goggles can give you the giggles.

There's our Barb!

You have got to keep laughing!

Study that Anatomy girls.

Where did all the girls go?

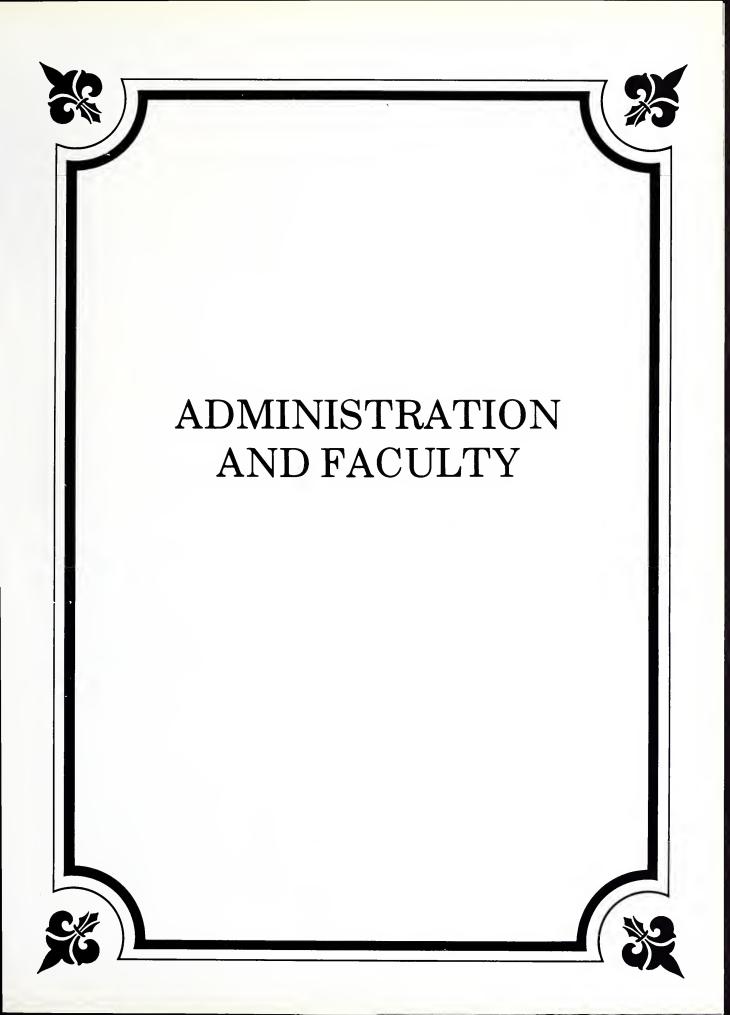

Let's get out of here.

Learning to be graceful?

I love this class!

Sarah is prepared to stab her next victim.

Well, this is how it is suppose to be.

What do you mean, remove our masks!!!

But Mom, All the instructors dress that way.

Farewell To Mr. Larabee

On April 2, 1975 the Students and Faculty of LVMH sponsored a surprise potluck dinner in honor of Mr. J. Larabee. Special presentations were made by Kathy Chesrown, Sue Molloy, and Sarah Smith on behalf of the Senior and Junior Classes and the Student Body.

Many thanks to Mr. Larabee for his good leadership and friendship!

Medical — Surgical Nursing

"And furthermore...", says Mrs. Spring, Head Nurse on 4 North. By the look on Debbie's face she's really paying attention.

Carol Mullins assists her patient on the IPPB treatment.

"To Live . . .

... Is To Give"

Kathy, Watch what you're doing!

Sue M. the bed is for the patient not for the Student.

Are you awake Mrs. Steward?

Oh, he's such a cutie!

Be sure to tie those strings tight!

Close quarters.

Go ahead Mildred he won't

Christmas time in O.B.

You mean they actually diaper this guy-where do they put the pins?

Obstetrical

Well I don't know, what do you think.

What are you doing now, Sargent?

Gee Patty, you look lovely.

It's a good thing our uniforms are long!

Thought I'd bring you in a little surprise!

Nursing

No thanks, I'm on a diet--but...

Sister Paul Therese, B. S. N.

Sister Paul spent many devoted hours teaching LVMH students about Pediatrics. She was loved by all.

Pediatric

Wet Again!!

If they could see us now.

Am I boring you with my knowledge about this medication!!!

Stairway to ???????????

Nursing

If a child lives with criticism, He learns to condem. If a child lives with hostility, He learns to fight.
If a child lives with ridicule, He learns to be shy. If a child lives with shame, He learns to feel guilty. If a child lives with tolerance,
He learns to be patient.
If a child lives with encouragement, He learns confidence. If a child lives with praise, He learns to appreciate. If a child lives with fairness, He learns justice.
If a child lives with security He learns to have faith. If a child lives with approval, He learns to like himself. If a child lives with friendship, He learns to find love in the world.

Don't throw up on me, kid.

Patience, Linda, Patience!

LuAnn and Sue do some recovery of their own!

Considering Surgery on your thumb, Maryann?

Patty prepares for a long day of work and learning.

Surgical Nursing

Surely you are not tired after a day in surgery Sue?

There is never a dull day in Surgery, right Mrs. Isom?

I just don't believe this charting!

Emergency

The Pits show devoted nursing!

I can see her Epiglottis!

Norma's Birthday Party!

Does this mean I'm Pregnant!

Room

I never knew Germs are interesting!

Please don't forget the Tourniquet!

Team Leading

Taping is so much fun. Isn't Luann?

Dog-gone elevators are so slow!

Couldn't you look a little more enthusiastic Mrs. Steward?

My My girls you're showing a little leg! Especially you Debbie.

Now how much did you say, Kathy?

One of the important aspects of team leading is to be sure that everyone signed out for the meds properly.

Level IV Theory

If you think clinical is bad, just try staying awake during class time!

Of course, there is a little bit of enjoyment once in a while.

Patti Asche chooses to do some studying on her time off.

"Oh you're kidding!" says Carol Puzey, as Jr's watch a favorite soap opera.

Mary Jo at the waterhole.

As usual, Liz Wargo, is trying to convince the teachers - Let us know if it worked Liz!

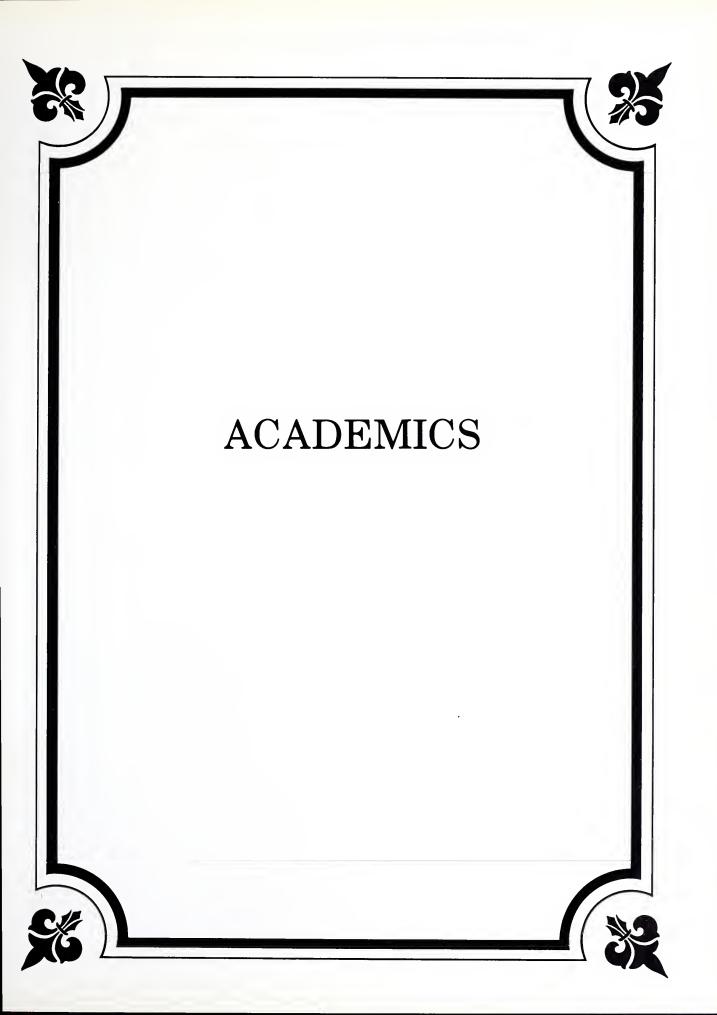

Last fall the Juniors sponsored a Doctor-Student Nurse softball game. Warming up are Sue Molloy, Dr. Hoffman, and Martha Rutan.

OUR ILLUSTRIOUS EDITOR!!

Paragon Staff

The yearbook staff was busy as usual this year meeting the deadlines along with taking pictures and making contacts for advertisements. The student body sold candy as a money-making project for the "Paragon".

In October the staff attended a seminar at the Elk's Club and learned of several new ideas. Sandy Morrison was typing manager, and Deb Weicherding was in charge of ads. Mrs. Taber, our sponsor, helped us in numerous ways also.

SNAI

THE TIME TO BE HAPPY IS NOW; THE PLACE TO BE HAPPY IS HERE; THE WAY TO BE HAPPY IS TO MAKE OTHERS SO.

The Danville chapter of the Student Nurses Association of Illinois was busy throughout the year with conventions, banquets, seminars, meetings, and other various activities. This club is also active in the national organization.

The Sun can't shine on us all the time!

Freshman Picnic

People age quickly in the nursing profession!

Ideas
the Freshman are to be questioned

I know the building is old but I don't think it's that bad.

Do you really have to do that in Nursing?

Three Blind Mice!

With a bit of "encouragement", Mary Jo comes up with a mouthful!

Halloween

Mary Jo Parsons exhibits her new build while Vickie Lampe and Tina Wright follow reluctantly.

Vickie Brownfield, it looks as if you have really been studying hard lately. Following in her footsteps (?) are Connie Tenny and Sue Molloy.

Ann Irvin, Debbie LeClair, Jayne Fletcher, and Debbie Weicherding decide on which surgical procedure to utilize in this case.

The Halloween Party was held in October in Grygiel Hall. All of the ghosts and goblins of LVMH were present that evening as these pictures indicate.

That poor girl wants to know who's hand that is Sue Sargent!

Party

Caught you in the act Sue!

Christmas

Give Kathleen a Hand...

Marion, you say you've been going to Weight Watchers??

Come One, Come All...It's Free!!

Hey, Who forgot the Boat?

The Angels of L.V.M.H.

1974

Me and my Teddy Bear!

Check those Legs!

Watch your hands Fred!!

Who does Rudolph have under his fur!

Give us a little more leg Kathy!!

Awhhh, Debbie, You're so cute!!

Would you believe our Peds instructors are reverting back to their childhood!??!

Our reputable hospital staff!!

Student-Faculty Follies

Each year the student body sponsors the "Student-Faculty Follies". This is the evening when all of the students and instructors get together and really "let their hair down" for an evening full of laughs.

The Junior-Senior Banquet is given in the honor of the graduating Senior class by the Junior class. It is a way for members of both classes to say farewell and best wishes for the memories that will last throughout the years to come. The Class of 1975 wishes to thank the Class of 1976 for all of the hard work and time that was spent to make this evening a memorable one.

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES CLASS OF 1975!!

How did you do THAT??

Sue Molloy, Jr. Class President, cordially welcomes everyone to the banquet.

The class response was given by Becky Tanner, Senior Class President.

Doctor Hoffman was the guest speaker of the evening.

We all thoroughly enjoyed the occupational telephone monologues by ${\rm Mr.}\,$ and ${\rm Mrs.}\,$ Rick.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Mrs. Roth, You should have known better than to pull the table apart at the middle.

We all enjoyed the music of "Mourning Missed."

LuAnn Lindgren reads the Seniors' last wills and prophecies.

The head table ...

Ms. Congeniality

Mrs. Becky Tanner was chosen as Ms. Congeniality of the 1975 Senior Class. She was elected by her classmates for her outstanding personality and friendship throughout the years at LVMH.

Kathy, are you having fun!!!

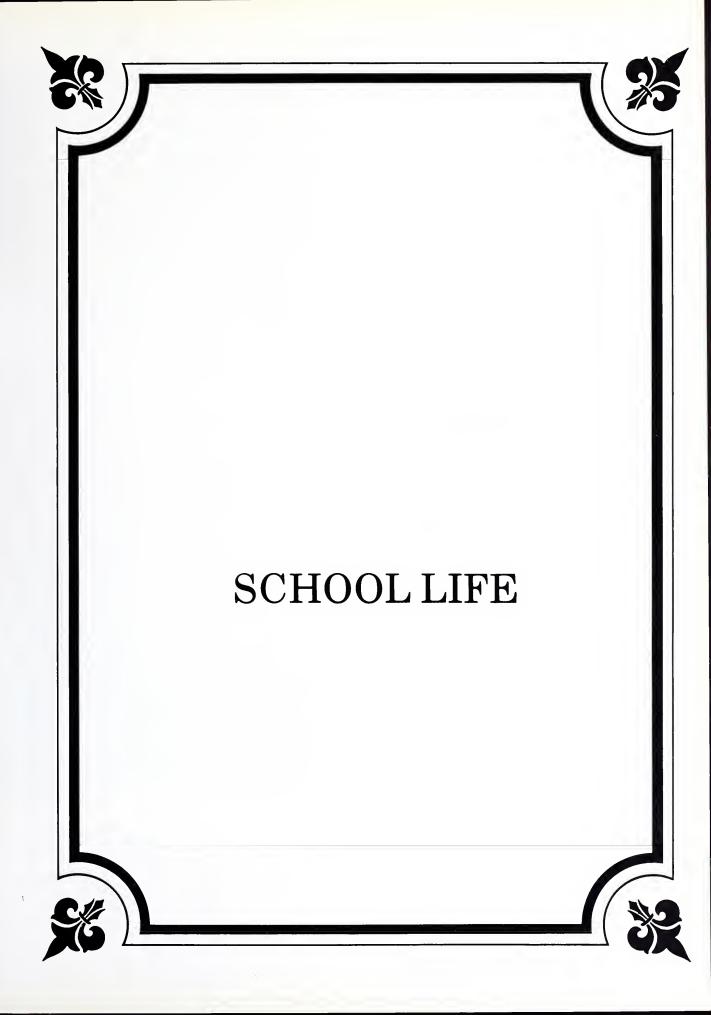

J.N.'s At

Leisure

Oh, Sue! You've lost SO much weight!!

Yes, believe it or not, Marian does do some studying once in a while. (P.S.-- Your friend's slippers need washing!!)

"Oh, What a horrible life to be a freshman!"

No matter what you say, Mrs. Patterson is very hard to convince, right girls?

Yes, Vicky always had something new to show us. Is that Connie T. following in her footsteps?!?

Our Florence Nightingale of dorm life -- MOM CLARK!

A Banquet was held in honor of the Graduating Class at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Danville, Illinois. What a splendid way to end three exciting years at LVMH.

Senior

Activities

One of the Senior's Spring activities included a bus ride to Chicigo where the class toured the Cook County Hospital. The group left early in the morning and after a very interesting and educational day they returned to Danville, tired but happy.

For once, everyone was quiet...

We'll never forget Fred's sense of humor!

That's one good trait about the LVMH students --they're so "professional"!

Patty Asche was recognized for second highest scholastic honors. She was also awarded the Charline Grygiel Award for outstanding proficiency in nursing.

Grad

Jacqueline Willis and Pam Merrick were both honored as third highest scholastic achievers.

Graduation exercises for the Class of 1975 were held on Sunday, May 11 at St. James Methodist Church. Speakers included Dr. William Grady, Rev. Newhall, Sister Paul Therese who gave the address, invocation, and benediction, respectively.

Mr. James Larabee presented the diplomas to the graduates, and Mrs. Kathleen Taber distributed the Nursing pins. The Junior Class presented special music.

No man is an island, entire of itself; every man is a piece of the Continent, a part of the main; if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a manor of thy friends or of thine own were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind; and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

-- John Donne

Class Of 1975 Prophecy

The year is 2000, 25 years into the future. Just imagine what can happen to you in 25 short years.

First we see Nancy Inman. Poor Nancy has been doomed to spinsterhood and is serving as a missionary to a tribe of liberated women in the congo.

Sue Sargent, now at Mercy Hospital has finally found the real thing for the hundred and eightieth time with a newly admitted U of I football player.

Mary Ann Altman has struck oil in South Dakota and is finally able to pay back phone bills from LVMH.

Becky Tanner is now administrator at Williamsport Hospital.

Judy Carpenter passed her state boards with flying colors but is now in the hospital with a broken leg received when she fell from her motorcycle.

Sarah Smith has become a leader in public health nursing. Her articles on Swinging Singles Diseases have become internationally famous. Sarah is now working on her first book, Cures of Cosmo Girls.

Debra Armantrout finally made the plunge, called Dr. Spencer and made an appointment for a total freckle-ectomy. You wouldn't even know Mildred Burrows. She's down to a hundred and twenty pounds and is acting like a spring chicken. Marian Norman is now the mother of six. After the first one, the rest just kept on coming. She is also the head nurse on the Pediatric ward.

Now that J.L. has left, Christine Holycross has taken over the school and is eagerly awaiting that big plush office on fifth floor.

Vickie Brownfield has put her husband to work trying to think of ways to help her keep the V.A. patients from chasing after her when she wears dresses to work.

Marylin Yowell has just been picked for Super Nurse of the Year, due to her lightening-fast decisions on the floor.

LuAnn Lindgren is still flashing off her new maroon car, but it will never match up to her red hair.

Lynn Blackford will be celebrating her silver anniversary in two weeks. Senility has finally caught up with those two, Clark thinks he's Superman (alias Clark Kent) and Lynn thinks she is Lois Lane.

After working in Union Hospital's Nursery for twenty years, Kathy Williamson decided to devote her time to being president of the American Nurse's Association.

Now we see Myra Henry, sitting in the nurses station in the Peds ward at Lakeview knitting and dreaming of all the little Bubbas at home.

Pat Holden has her own factory too. She is making sexy sunglasses just like hers. The biggest feature is the kiddies model. Instead of kittens, they have bedpans on the corners.

Patty Asche has her own factory too. She has designed Patty's Pumps Nursing Shoes. Her company guarantees to make you taller than the Pediatric patients.

Linda Ribbing is publishing her 33rd edition of Ribbing's Revues-A Guide for Young Brides.

Annette Okerlund has a new best seller out. Everything You've Wanted to Know About Studying But Were Afraid to Ask. And here's Mrs. B.J. Pearson, the former Kathi Chesrown listening to STANDING IN THE WATER??? by Ozark Mountain Daredevils.

Jeanne Jenkins is now a public health nurse concentrating on Health standards of bars such as Freddies, the Underground, the Big Barrel, etc.

And here's Fred Hill, director of the AMNA, American Male Nurse's Association.

Debbie Weicherding is now Mother Wich at St. Joe's Convent.

Pam Merrick is acting administrator of the Shelter Care Home for Nervous Nurse's. Ms. Merrick has extra-ordinary insight into their needs having been there herself.

Juli Blankenship is a nun at Mother Weicherdering's Convent. She tried to get into Fred Hill's AMNA but was discriminated against due to her sex.

Nancy Ebersol is the industrial nurse at MACDonald's and is reportedly having an affair with Ronald MacDonald. Jackie Willis, discouraged with the lack of enthusiasm from nursing students was admitted to Mr. Merrick's Shelter Home for Nervous Nurse's.

Sandy Morrison, while sleeping at her apartment building, saved everyone by running down the halls at 4 o'clock in the morning yelling, "You guys, get up. There's a storm coming!" Sandy received a Citation for Bravery but she also received one for disturbing the peace.

So completes our journey into the future. And who knows, we just might have been right about our predictions!!!

Senior Wills

- I, MARY ANN ALTMAN, will to any Jr. my ability to stay away from my husband for months at a time, and pay $150.00 phone bills every month.
- I, PATTY ASCHE, will to Ann Irving my ability to stay up till early hours, but still look and seem as if I've had 12 hours of sleep the night before.
- I, LYNN BLACKFORD, of fairly sound mind and body (as sound as one can be after going through 3 years of nurse's training) will to any Jr. the pleasures and pains of the yearbook.
- I, JULI BLANKENSHIP, will all my instant potatoes to Connie Tenney, she needs them more than I do.
- I, VICKI BROWNFIELD, being of tired mind and married body, hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk in circles and
- make people think I know what I'm talking about to a slow--talking Junior!

 I, MILDRED BURROWS, will the ability to keep my husband, children, and instructors happy, homework done, and still retain my sunny disposition to Hilda Hays, who'll need it!
- I, CHRISTINE HOLYCROSS, will to all married students especially the ones with families the ability to let a hell of a lot of things go just to get through school and the use of the Xerox machine PRN.
- I, MYRA HENRY, will to any lonely Jr. my ability to write to my husband every night and stay in school when I would rather be with him.
- I, FRED HILL, being of relatively sound mind and totally shattered body will to Jeff Shaw the key to the only male restroom in the school of nursing.
- I, PAT HOLDEN, will to everyone over 30 the stamina to keep pace with your classmates.
- I, NANCY INMAN, will my ability to get along with everyone to those most deserving of it; namely, Mrs. Hozdic and Mrs. Schoon. I also will, with no regrets, my lack of motivation to all those Jrs. who flunk THEIR midterms and must depend on their finals to pass.
- I, PAM MERRICK, will to Carol Mullins, my ability to sit through three hours of the NLN consultation meeting and three hours of the curriculum committee meetings in an attempt to change our institution.
- I, SANDY MORRISON, will my exotic dreams of my OB days to Mary Jo Parsons and my love for Psych to Sue Molloy.
- I, ANNETTE OKERLUND, will my great ability to BLUSH and SPLOTCH to any Jr. student.
- I, LINDA RIBBING, will my quiet nature to Pam Merrick.
- I, BECKY TANNER, will my ability to talk to "higher-ups" calmly, my ability to be told "NO!" in 1,101 ways, and 7,000 miles to any Jr. who has a car and the kind of luck to be Sr. Class President.
- I, SARAH SMITH, will to Jayne Fletcher my sweet, quiet and naive personality which I acquired at Lake View.
- LuANN LINDGREN will my ability to warm up the hospital and add a spark to 3 south to Nancy Woody.
- I, LuANN LINDGREN will my ability to warm up the hospital and add a spark to 3 south to Nancy Woody. I, KATHY CHESROWN, will my ability to perpetually put my foot in my mouth to my little sister Leslie Phinney.
- I, DEBRA ARMANTROUT, being of broken mind and tired body will my intrusting alarm clock to Norma Taylor.
- I, PAM MERRICK, will my ability to outlast a director of nursing to who ever wants it!
- I, SUE SARGENT, being of sound mind and body do will all my x-boyfriends to any lonely junior.
- JEANNE JENKINS, will my one and only contact for Linda Kurle (littlesis) to pass med's with.
- I, DEBBIE WEICHERDING, will my post-puberty acne, baby-fat and the left wall of my room to Ann Irvin.

 I, KATHY WILLIAMSON, being of tired mind and body, will my ability to develop the symptoms of any illness ever men-
- tioned in the last 3 years, to any Jr. We, the Class of 1975, being of stuffed minds and worn out bodies do hereby will the Level IV class of 1976 --
 - 1. Our ability to learn what some instructors have never understood.
 - 2. Our ability to make paper dolls out of an outline, since we hated to see paper wasted.
 - 3. Our ability to conform to LVMH dress code without ever breaking our own.
 - 4. Our motivation, enthusiasm, superb professional team work: and above all the ability to function in an atmosphere of peace and harmony.
- Your answers may include any or all of the following:
 - 1. A, B, C
 - 2. B, C, D
 - 3. A, D
 - 4. D, B 5. C, D
 - 6. All of the above but A.
 - 7. All of the above but C.
 - 8. Sorry! There is no "none of the above"!!!

THOU

Lord, light my fire with purpose beyond the thought that life, happy or unhappy, successful or unsuccessful, is extraordinarily interesting.

Mighty warriors, celebrated and honored, allow me the pleasure of loving the multitudes of mankind, of escaping intolerance, a unique adventure.

Beautiful stars, it is so wrong to embrace the sun, to enjoy spring air, and to love, to think, and act courageously?

Powerful faith, do not betray me in my hour of need and despair, a superior man is marked by rising the fallen hawks and doves, an ultimate triumph.

Mountain peaks, do not reject me while my direction wavers, for all things must change to something new, to something strange, for flowers grow.

Ocean winds, might you offer more than fresh silence to my solitude, and allow me the conviction that only little minds are subdues by midfortune, and sadly mistaken?

Dark granite, forget your cold rewards, your solidarity is needed, a virtuous deed should never be delayed, the impulse is too strong, and hesitation unnecessary.

Bold rose, do not weary of life, your thorny stems lead inward to secret doors, and are doors outwards, out of self, out of smallness, out of wrong, to eternal peace.

Your children are not your children. They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself. They come through you but not from you, And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts, For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls, For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.

For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday. You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.

The archer sees the mark upon the parth of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.

Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness; For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

TAKE TIME

Take time for friendship when you can. The hours fly swiftly, and the need That presses on your fellowman May fade away at equal speed And you may sigh before the end That you have failed to play the friend. Not all life's pride is born of fame; Not all the joy from work is won. Too Late we hang our heads in shame, Remembering good we could have done; Too Late we wish that we had stayed To comfort those who called for aid. Take time to do the little things Which leave the satisfactory thought, When other joys have taken wings, That we have labored as we ought; That in a world where all contend, We often stopped to be a friend.
